

CHRIS-CRAFT STINGERS

Welcome to the October, 2012 Newsletter!

October is here again. Up north here on the great lakes, the marinas are empty as boats are pulled out of the water. It's starting to get cold and soon ice will be forming.

This past month, I was able to figure out a better method to find Stingers outside of the US. This allowed me to add new Stingers to the website from Sweden, Finland, France and Italy. This bumps up the count of Stingers on the registry to about 543.

New parts have been added to the parts page on the website. These parts include an emblem and switch panels for a 260, and various switches.

I've also made a change to the newsletter this month. I've changed the layout for the listing of Stingers for sale. The layout is little cleaner and is easier to maintain.

Until next month, safe boating!

On the Trail of the Moulds

In a couple of the newsletters, I've run articles about Grew Manufacturing of Canada. Grew started as the Gidley Boat Works located at Georgian Bay on Lake Huron in 1882. By the 1920s, Arthur Grew of Penetanguishine took over the company and renamed it Grew Manufacturing.

Grew factors into the history of the Stingers as, during the 1980s, Grew was licensed by Chris-Craft to produce Stingers in Canada. There are currently at least 3 Stingers on the registry that were manufactured by Grew, all model year 1986 260s manufactured in 1986.

The sad demise of Grew began in February, 2011 when the president, Mr David Cameron, passed away. By May of 2011, Grew was in receivership.

In November of 2011, Grew's assets were put up for auction. The assets included "work in process, raw materials, lamination and other boat building equipment, tools and supplies, upholstery, canopy, 30+ sets of moulds, trade names, real estate, material handling, trucks, trailers, etc."

Since I've learned about the fact that Grew had their arrangement with Chris-Craft to produce Stingers, I've been trying to find anyone I could who was associated with Grew. With the auctioning of the items, I decided to contact the auction house that handled Grew's auction. My guess was they would have information regarding any Chris-Craft items that Grew still had in it's possession.

Last month, I contacted the auction house. They indicated that there were some Chris-Craft items that were sold at auction. And, they put me in touch with Douglas Farmer, one of the people that had bought some of these items

Douglas Farmer lives in Owen Sound in Canada. Douglas knew David Cameron, the owner of Grew. As Douglas describes it, Owen Sound is a small community of 20,000. Douglas was working in real-estate when he met David. When David found out that Douglas was working on restoring two Chris-Craft boats, a 1947 17' custom utility boat and a 1955 20' boat, David sent help from Grew over to help with restoring the steering system.

I contacted Douglas last month to see if any of the items he bought at auction had anything to do with the Stingers. Douglas kindly responded that he did not buy any Stinger related parts, but he did mention that there were some moulds sitting outside at the old Grew Manufacturing plant.

In running the website, I've gotten a few question regarding whether or not there are any moulds left for the Stingers. When Douglas mentioned the moulds sitting outside the Grew plant, I started wondering if any of the moulds were for the Stingers. I started getting excited about the prospect of finding the moulds. I immediately asked Douglas about the moulds. He said he would stop by the plant and talk to the new owner.

A day later I received an email from Douglas. He indicated that he talked to the new owner of the building. After explaining that he was looking for old Stinger moulds, the owner let him look around. The new owner indicated that prior to the auction, there were moulds haphazardly littered around the property. At the time of the auction, the moulds were lined up. The problem was, Douglas could not identify the moulds.

I was getting excited with the thought that I might find a Stinger mould. At this point I asked Douglas if he would be able to take pictures of the moulds and send them to me. In the meantime, I contemplated making the 14 hour drive to Owen Sounds.

I waited for the pictures from Douglas. A couple of days went by. Finally, I got an email from Douglas, but it was not what I wanted to hear. Douglas had talked to the ex-production manager of Grew who told him that there were no Stinger moulds. At some point after the 1980s the Chris-Craft moulds were either cut-up, modified or junked. The moulds in the yard of the old Grew plant did not include Stinger moulds.

I knew it was a long shot. I knew it probably couldn't be that easy to find a Stinger mould. But, I had to try. In the process, I learned more about Grew Manufacturing than I have since I've started the website. And, more importantly, I've made a friend in Douglas Farmer.

In running the website, I've met a lot of people who've helped me out in putting together the history of the Stingers. It's because of these people, Douglas included, that I continue the work on the website.

I'd like to thank Douglas for his help in trying to track down the Stinger moulds. If you'd like to find out more about Douglas, you can visit his website at baggagelocator.com – a website to assist travelers who have lost their luggage, carry-ons, etc.

In the meantime I will continue to track down every lead I can find that may lead to more information on the Stingers.

We rewired the entire boat about 3 years ago. This season we replaced the manifolds So the boat has been maintained and is in good working order I would characterize the finishes of the boat as "worn around the edges" but as hinges and snaps corrode we replace them The boat has a working head & shower Galley/ microwave/ref/sink TV stereo/cd/sat system/ ipod dock deck compass GPS

Asking Price: $7,500

This is a 1988 Chris Craft stinger. It has the original OMC 4.6L V6. it has about 820hrs. It is in good condition, it had a tune up at the end of the season to tighten up some belts, etc. These pictures are old, but the boat is currently winterized, so I can't get any current ones. You would not believe the attention you get for this boat. In addition to being bright red, it is a Chris Craft, these boats are instant classics and extremely well built. The Stinger line is famous because the original pilot of Miami Vice featured the 39' version of this boat. I have to sell because I'm looking at buisness school, and I won't have time for the toys. I have a great arrangement for moorage in lake washington as well, in a marina, on a boat lift, for $225/month. We can talk about transferring the lease. This price comes with the boat trailer and accessories, lines, fenders, extra aluminum prop, etc. If you would like to see comparable sale prices or find out more about the history of these boats, check out www.chriscraftstingers.com this boat is on the registry there at: Seattle 202 Gallery

For age and year this boat is in excellent condition. . Interior includes new flat screen television and new kitchen counter top. Air Conditioning and complete kitchen. When I purchased the boat, I was told the interior had undergone a $15,000.00 renovation. I spoke to the technician who installed the stereo who informed me the cost was $7,200.00. I am not into music but I am told you can hear it in the next county. I am told both engines have been rebuilt. Combined, the engines have less than 100 hours on them. The boat is in the water now. Boat includes matching upholstered rear engine covers not shown in the pictures. Outdrives: I had the outdrives soda blasted and enameled painted. Outdrives are in working condition but do not view well. New props. I have a spare set of outdrives that go with the boat. I decided to use the old ones until I either tore them up or blew them up. Going with the old adage...if it's not broke, don't fix it. Trailer (Not Included) :If you purchase the boat at the Buy it Now price, trailer will be included. Trailer is not fitted for this specific boat. I use it only for towing for service. The only reason I am selling this boat after only 6 months of ownership is because I have decided I want a bigger more gas guzzling boat. I want a big express cruiser. You can search youtube for a video made by the prior owner (search: 1989 Chris Craft Stinger 415 Rhode Island) I am providing this information solely for visual reference of the boat. The boat is located in the water on Emerald Isle, North Carolina.

Don Johnson drove a Stinger in the opening episode of Miami Vice, a bit of classic boating history! This is a solid 1985 Chris Craft Stinger, 31 feet with twin 1995 Mercury 225 EFI engines that have a total of less than 450 hours on them. This particular boat had a new transom installed in 1995 when the bracket was added and the two Mercs, brand new at the time, were installed. The transom is rock solid and I am more than happy to have the mechanic of your choice inspect the hull and engines. I installed two new batteries at the beginning of this boating season. This boat is ready to get wet now. Included are two Bimini tops with complete vinyl enclosure, the entire cockpit can be inside clear vinyl for those bad weather conditions or if you wanted to take the boat camping. I also have a complete dodger to cover the boat from bow to stern for outdoor storage. The dodger has minor rips but serves its purpose well. Inside the cabin are two single beds with an additional V-berth sleeping area up in the bow. Cabin is finished in white vinyl, has a VHF and AM/FM stereo radio. The cockpit and lounge area are finished in MardiGras Green, Purple and Gold vinyl and is in good shape. Vessel passed Coast Guard inspection end of last season and has a sticker. All Coast Guard equipment goes with the vessel except PFDs. The included trailer is a Loadmaster triple axle with disk brakes on four wheels (two axles). The brakes were completely replaced last year by Loadmaster, all lights work, bunks were recovered and six new tires were installed. The trailer is ready to go! Lots of fun in one heck of a boat with classic lines and lots of room for friends. If you ever wanted a go-fast style boat but couldn't afford it, this is the boat for you. It is turn-key, needs nothing and is ready to hit the water this weekend!

This boat needs some work, this isnt something you will go out on today. The trailer is not included and its not mine to sell. The motors both run and are MerCruiser 350's 5.7 and sound good, no smoke, were last started 3 weeks ago. The boat has been sitting 3 to 4 years. The drives are mercruiser and do go up and down and are in good working order. From sitting the thermostats are stuck and shifter cables are hard to move but have been freeing up, steering is fine, I dont believe the alternators are charging. The upholstery is faded and has some tears, the seats and floor are strong and hull is sound and dry, aproximatly 4000lbs. The motors are raw water cooled, both thermostat housings leak a little. I dont know if they are original or not, if i remember correctly hour meters read around 650hrs. Im torn wether to fix this or part it out, seeing whats out there, I would like to trade for a inflatable, something like a Avon/Zodiac with small outboard. Maybe a boat trailer that could haul a 7000lbs 26ft boat (my other boat) I am waiting on a duplicate title, I got this boat from the third owner, a family friend who is moving out of state, shouldnt be a issue but may take a few weeks, no title needed for parts obviously... I remember doing almost 70mph on her not too long ago, simply not my style boat to spend allot of time or money on though.

I have a super rare 88' chris craft stinger 202 for sale. It has 165 hours on the hull. This boat is like brand new. I literally just finished it. This is the coolest fiberglass speed boat that Chris Craft ever made and was made for the Miami Vice tv series. They were built in very limited quantities and there are only a handful of these left. There is a website dedicated to them, I know of no other boats that have a cult following. I built this one to be better than it was originally. It is an attention grabber. I get compliments on it wherever I am and have had numerous offers on it even before I restored it. I'm selling it because I'm getting married and need the money. I just put well over $7500 into it this summer alone and have well over 12K into it total. I had planned on using it but sadly it needs to go. Weddings are insanely expensive and I'm finding out the hard way. I replaced the motor and outdrive. It has an OMC 4.3L v-6 and an OMC cobra outdrive. Next, I gutted the boat completely and installed new marine ply, fiberglass, carpet, custom built seats and engine cover and had everything professionally upholstered. I installed a new GT steering wheel, a Sony marine cd/mp3/satellite radio which sounds awesome, a new bilge pump, new fuel lines, new aluminum swivel/slider/adjustable height seat posts and new Tracker style folding seats. The interior work cost over $4K alone but was well worth it. It came out awesome. I had a 4bbl. Rochester carb installed which brings the HP up to 205 and will do over 60MPH. I had the pin striping re-done on the boat and matching Shorelandr trailer. I replaced the tires, lights, and started to strip and repaint the entire trailer. It also has a new deep cycle battery. There are 2 swim platforms molded into the stern that have teak foot boards and they were also refinished and look great. I also just purchased a new trailerable cover for it. I even just filled the tank with ethanol free 93 octane fuel. I'm probably forgetting a lot. If you're interested you must include the words eighty-eight chris craft to get a response due to spammers. I know it's the wrong time of the year to sell a boat and I could get more for it this spring which is why I priced it where it is. It is well worth the money. Chris craft builds the very best boats around and this one is better than new.
